

SCHLOSS GOBELSBURG

WEINKULTURERBE ÖSTERREICHS

Ried SPIEGEL | Kamptal^{DAC}

ORIGIN: Ried (single vineyard, cru) Spiegel is an east to southeast facing ridge situated south of Langenlois. A thick loess coat with a balanced mineral composition is based on profound calcareous soils here. Thin layers of gravel in some parcels as well as old soil formations indicate that the loess was structured according to different climatic phases.

CHARACTER: The multifaceted terroir renders its wines a remarkable complexity. Intensely colored, spicy-flinty bouquet of perfectly ripe and elegant fruit aromas. Round and intense on the palate yet with crystalline, vivacious acidity and great elegance, this is a structured Veltliner with intense and juicy fruit, remarkable calmness and a stimulatingly spicy and nutty finish. Being a great food companion it goes especially well with dishes embracing autumn and winter vegetables as well as hearty stews.

WINE LIST DESCRIPTION: The SPIEGEL vineyard grows powerful yet elegantly structured wines from profound soils, rich in loess and calcareous parcels, that result in a balance of rounded intensity, fine fruit and a nuttyspiciness.
